News Update – COVID-19 – September 2020

Dear Members

I am writing this on behalf of the Birmingham Branch Committee which met (online) on 1st September for a planned meeting after the summer break with the main purpose of reviewing the situation regarding the possibilities of recommencing dancing this autumn.

Having weighed up the risks and restrictions – and having especially referred to the RSCDS Monthly Board Highlights and the ‘COVID-19 Safety Considerations – July 2020’, all on the RSCDS website, – it was decided, with much regret, that both the weekly classes and the occasional social dances will continue to be suspended for the remainder of 2020, but that the situation will be continually monitored and will again be reviewed at our next committee meeting in November.

In the meantime please enjoy all that is available on the RSCDS website – ‘Dance Scottish At Home’ – including the weekly live dance classes taught by teachers around the world – and keep safe and well!

With kind regards

Paul R Lindley
